Background

On March 27, 2003, Colgan filed a 90-day notice of its intent to suspend its unsubsidized service at Lebanon, effective June 25, 2003.² By Order 2003-6-4, June 2, 2003, the Department prohibited Colgan from suspending service beyond the end of its 90-day notice period, through July 25, 2003, and requested proposals, with subsidy if necessary, from carriers interested in providing replacement service. As required by 49 U.S.C. 41734, we have extended Colgan's service obligation for additional 30-day periods, the latest through October 24, 2003, by Order 2003-9-20.

Although we have received a proposal, this case will not be completed by the end of the current hold-in period. Therefore, in accordance with 49 U.S.C. 41734(c), we will extend Colgan's service obligation at Lebanon for an additional 30 days, or until reliable replacement service actually begins, whichever occurs first.

New York-La Guardia Airport, for an additional 30-day period through November 24, 2003, or until reliable replacement service actually begins, whichever occurs first;³

2. We direct Colgan to retain all books, records, and other source and summary documentation to support subsidy claims for payment, and to preserve and maintain such documentation in a manner that readily permits its audit and examination by representatives of the Department. Such documentation shall be retained for seven years or until the Department indicates that the records may be destroyed, whichever comes first. Copies of flight logs for aircraft sold or disposed of must be retained. The carrier may forfeit its compensation for any claim that is not supported under the terms of this order;

3. Docket OST-2003-14822, will remain open until further order of the Department; and

4. We will serve a copy of this order on the Mayor and Airport Manager of Lebanon, and Colgan Air.

Persons entitled to petition the Department for review of this order under the Department's Regulations, 14 CFR 385.50, must file such petitions within ten (10) days after the date of service of this order.

This order will be effective immediately, and the filing of a petition for review shall not preclude its effectiveness.
